compliance with MPEP section 713.04. The interview consisted of a review of the pertinent prior art, a presentation of the inventive concepts by one of the inventors and a discussion of the patentable features of the inventive concepts. As no rejection is currently pending, no amended claims have been submitted herewith. The application was discussed in the context of an interview which encompassed at least six different applications. The instant application was not the primary subject matter of the discussion, but was included in order to provide a scope of coverage relating to the other applications. No specific discussion was had relating to any particular patentable aspects of this application.

Respectfully submitted,
